INSTITUTE.

- CONSULTATI[illegible] IN ALL CASES, FREE
- CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED
- IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established y Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, nd which have done so much secure the reputation of this nstitute, are still adhered to, fording those in need of edical aid, the certainty of ure and the utmost confidence. There is nothing of so great portance to the sick as to now where to find a physician whose skill and humanity ve assurance of proper and ficacious treatment. The Doc- r would respectfully call the [illegible] of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble [illegible] invariable success that has marked the career of the stitute in the seventeen years f its existence.

It is unnecessary in this [illegible] to enumerate all the omplaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it is duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has acquired so enviable a reputation.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 15—A bet was made of $[illegible]00 against $500 that Grant will be President.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Eleventh Ward last evening which was addressed by Judge Badzely and R Guy McLellan.

The grand Democratic meeting under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic Club for which the most expensive preparations had been made took place at Platt's Hall last evening. The meeting was largely attended and Mr Axtell was warmly received. He made a lengthy speech which was mainly confined to eulogies upon Mr Seymour. After the meeting closed the assembly then formed in procession and paraded the streets with torchlights and transparencies. Altogether the demonstration fell below what was anticipated by all parties.

The Democrats have decided to take the nomination of candidates for municipal officers from the people and make nominations through the delegates chosen by themselves.

The Associated Veterans of the Mexican war last evening re-elected General Halleck as President.

Instructions and maps have been received from Washington declaring the immediate restoration to the settlement and entry of the lands heretofore withdrawn on the lines of the Western Pacific and Southern Pacific Railroads and described in the maps as follows: first the termination and 20 mile limits of that part of the Western Pacific assignees of the Central Pacific, completed; second the 20 and 25 mile land limits of the uncompleted portion; and third the termination limits as per Secretary's decision of the Southern Pacific Railroad. None of the lands within that limit have been proclaimed for sale therefore the restoration will be to enter under the pre-emption and homestead laws. Notice is to be given for at least thirty days.

The health officer reported fifty seven cases of small pox for the week.

Freights are lower and vessels of 1 000 tons and under have been offered for Liverpool at 3£.

J Durant was found dead in the street this A M.

The receipts of wheat here for the 24 hours ending to-day noon amounted to 50 000 centals in addition the ship Midnight arrived from Vallejo yesterday with 25 000 centals from New York.

The Campaign in California.

NEVADA Sept 15—Hons J G Eastman and J F Swift addressed one of the most enthusiastic Union meetings here last evening that has ever been held in this place. The Nevada Grant Club turned out with about 500 torches and nearly every house in town was illuminated. Swift made the most eloquent and thrilling speech that has been delivered this season.

STOCKTON Sept 15—The Gorham Wallace discussion to-night is well attended there being at least 2,000 persons at the meeting.

FROM THE CAPITAL

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

Oregon Legislature

SALEM, Sept 15—The Senate organized permanently by the election of the following officers: B F Burch President, S C Simpson Clerk, J M Thompson Assistant Clerk, J F Ford Enrolling Clerk, Engrossing Clerk Thos Lauer, Sergeant at Arms Dolph Hanna, Doorkeeper John Dalashmutt.

Dolph and Powell were not allowed to vote. The President ruled several times that they could not be recognized as members. Burch ruled that all privileges as Senators had been taken away but they were finally allowed to sit within the bar. Dolph and Powell insisted on their equal rights with all Senators to the exercise of all privileges, and Dolph did speak and make nominations being recognized to that effect. There was much confusion and irregularity of proceeding. The Democrats went through thick and thin to the main chance. The proceedings were as high handed as yesterday.

The House elected the following officers: John Whitaker Speaker, W L White Clerk, Wm Moreland Assistant, Ed Turk Engrossing Clerk, M H Abbot Enrolling Clerk, A M Snyder Sergeant at Arms, G H Smith Doorkeeper. Proceedings quiet.

AFTERNOON DISPATCH

SALEM Sept 15—Col Cornelius presented the credentials of F C Sels Senator elect from Grant. The certificate was read and laid on the table.

A resolution was adopted directing the Clerk to draw lots for the long or short term between Dolph and Powell. The drawing was had and Powell got the term to expire in 1870. Dolph is therefore out.

The House by joint resolution appointed Davis, Davenport and Alexander a committee to examine the books and accounts of the Treasurer. Senate postponed action on resolution until to-morrow. No other business in either House beyond ordinary resolutions, informing each other and Governor of permanent organization, ordinary laws, stationery, etc.

STATE ITEMS

There was a severe frost at Salem last week.

The horse trainers are at Salem and will be present at the State Fair.

The survey of the Yaquina Bay is proceeding rapidly and with accuracy.

The schooner T[illegible] King is loading at Yaquina Bay with 140 000 feet of lumber for the San Francisco market.

Hon Wilson Bowlby Republican candidate for Presidential Elector will deliver a political address at Ames' Chapel Washington county on Saturday the 26th inst.

On Tuesday last near Corvallis G W Ballard shot and killed an Indian named Frank. There had been a quarrel between the parties. Ballard was arrested and committed to jail.

Says the Roseburg paper: John Fimonson a wealthy and influential citizen of the Long Tom country is coming. We are informed that he intends to vote for Grant and in this will be doing what a very large class of Democrats will do. There are many Democrats who despise trickery and hypocrisy and therefore cannot and will not vote for Seymour.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM Sept 14 1868

Yesterday I mentioned a talked of Democratic programme for the organization of the Senate to wit: The Democratic members [illegible] to go in and take possession of seats to vote on the organization and by hook or by crook to secure the organization of the Senate. I then doubted whether Trevitt would do this. But the result proves that I had miscalculated his sense of decency and fairness. He came to the scratch this morning and not only went into the scheme but actually assumed the leadership of one of the most flagrantly unfair unlawful and disgraceful scenes ever witnessed in the State Capital. At a quarter past nine A M nearly two hours earlier than the customary time for assembling and at a time when there were not more than two or three Republican Senators in the chamber Mr Miller of Jackson called the Senate to order and nominated Vic Trevitt for President pro tem. He was hurriedly voted in, no attention being paid to an inquiry by Mr Bayley as to what authority Mr Miller had for proceeding thus. Trevitt took the chair and hurriedly announced that the next thing in order was the election of a Secretary. Cochran of Lane nominated S C Simpson, and in a breath Simpson was elected. Hendershott nominated D B Hanna for Sergeant at Arms and he was voted in. On motion of Burch of Polk a committee of three on credentials was ordered, and Trevitt appointed Burch Cochran and Ford,—all Democrats. The whole proceeding occupied less time than I have consumed in writing it. Stout of Multnomah and Dribblesby of Grant, (the contestant for Sterns seat two years ago) were to be in their seats and voting making a total Democratic force of thirteen. The persons acting as members were Ford Ison Dribblesby Trevitt Cochran Huston Hendershott Cyrus Crawford Holtzclaw Burch Stout and Miller. At half past nine a recess was taken till ten to allow the committee on credentials to report. At ten Trevitt who never left the chair called to order again. The committee not ready to report asked further time and another recess was taken till half past ten. The same course was again taken at the expiration of the recess and another recess taken till 11 o clock. As the clock struck eleven the old members, members elect and contestants were all in their seats except Sels of Grant. Trevitt called to order when Burch instantly moved an adjournment till 2 P M which was carried. The Democrats were evidently taken by surprise by the appearance of the Union Senators and wanted time to ascertain how the land lay.

At 2 o clock the Senate reconvened when Burch from the Committee on Credentials submitted the following report:

We the committee appointed to examine the credentials of members and report who are entitled to seats in the Senate beg leave to report as follows: That at the last general election the following named persons were elected Senators by their respective counties to wit:

Marion county—Samuel Miller elected to fill a vacancy
Lane county—R B Cochran
Douglas Coos and Curry counties—B Herman and C M [illegible]erschbaker
Josephine county—B F Holtzclaw
Polk county—B F Burch
Yamhill county—S C Adams
Washington Columbia Clatsop and Tillamook counties—T R Cornelius
Multnomah county—Lansing Stout
Clackamas county—J P Thompson
Wasco county—Victor Trevitt
Union county—James Hendershott

Your committee further report the following named persons entitled to seats who hold over since the last session to wit:

Marion county—Samuel Brown
Linn county—Wm Cyrus R H Crawford
Lane county—H C Huston
Jackson county—J N T Miller
Benton county—J R Bayley
Baker county—S Ison
Umatilla county—N Ford

Your committee further report that at the last session of the legislative assembly, a contest existed between John A Dribblesby and L O Sterns for the office of Senator from Grant county which contest was continued until the present session with leave to either party to take testimony relating to the same; that since then L O Sterns has sent to the Governor what he terms a resignation of his seat thereby abandoning the contest; that John A Dribblesby has produced before your committee a certificate of the County Clerk of Grant county showing that he received a majority of all the votes cast for Senator at the general election held in Grant county in June 1866. They therefore recommend that John A Dribblesby be entitled to the seat for Grant county.

Your committee further report that at the general election held in June 1866 J N Dolph and David Powell were elected Senators from Multnomah county; that one of them was entitled to hold his office for the term of four years and one for two years from that election but no allotment was made at the last session of the Senate, as required by the Constitution to determine to which class those Senators belong. Your committee therefore recommend that neither of said two persons claiming to be Senators from Multnomah county be entitled to vote until it shall be decided by lot which one of them is entitled to hold over.

B F BURCH
R B COCHRAN,
N FORD

Mr Burch explained before the report was read that the certificates of election had not all been received but the committee had consulted the best authorities and had acted upon them. Upon the reading of the report considerable filibustering occurred having for its object on the one side to secure a hearing and on the other to prevent discussion. As the President pro tem was about to put the question on a motion to receive the report and discharge the committee Mr Dolph asked to be heard. Stout immediately moved the previous question which he stated would preclude debate but notwithstanding this and the ruling of the President to the same effect a running war of words was kept up for some time between Stout Dolph Bayley Cornelius and others. Finally Stout withdrew the motion for the previous question and the motion to receive the report and discharge the committee was carried.

Hendershott of Union moved to adopt the report and on that motion moved the previous question, without waiting for a second to the first. Stout remarked that he was willing to allow Dolph or Powell to be heard for one hour and that all he wanted was half an hour to reply. Cornelius raised a point of order that the previous question could not be moved till the first motion should receive a second. The Chair ruled that the question was [illegible] the previous question be taken. Mr Cornelius appealed from this decision but the chair was sustained. Seven attempts were here made to discuss the report but as often the point of order was raised that debate could not be had under the operation of the previous question. Finally Mr Hendershott said he would withdraw the call for the previous question on the understanding that the gentlemen from Multnomah be heard one hour each. Mr Bayley objected to this because the question of the adoption of the report should be open to discussion by all the Senators. Hendershott then withdrew the call for the previous question.

The question then being on the motion to adopt the report of the committee on credentials Mr Dolph proceeded to discuss the general scope of the report but more particularly as it related to the representation from Multnomah county. [We will publish this speech tomorrow.—Ed OREGONIAN.]

Mr Stout replied making a very fair political harangue [illegible] every point of law [illegible] He indulged [illegible] personalities and an [illegible] He for[illegible] the motion for the previous question which was sustained by ayes 12—including both Stout and Dribblesby—and nays 9.

Col Cornelius offered an amendment to the report striking out the words "Multnomah county, Lansing Stout," which was defeated by ayes 9, and nays 11—Stout and Dribblesby voting nay. The question being then taken on the adoption of the report it was adopted—ayes 12, including Stout and Dribblesby, nays 10. In these several votes, taken by a division and count Trevitt was not counted, which explains why the Democratic vote was only twelve. Where the Republican vote was nine, Mr Bayley did not vote. This however did not affect any question as the result would have been the same had he voted. The proceedings were quite irregular. Trevitt was often confused and the victory of the Democracy was not gained by any semblance of fairness or disposition to give any ground which they could hold by main strength and awkwardness. They had thirteen men inside the bar to vote and they voted them straight to the desired end of securing the control of the Senate, without regard to constitution, law, pr[illegible] or consistency. As Mr Dolph said, the [illegible] reasons urged to keep out one of the M[illegible] members would put out Dribblesby and admit Sels of Grant. The same law which would require the Multnomah Senators to draw for allotment to class would compel the S[illegible] fr[illegible] five other districts to draw—including Ford, Ison and one or two other Democrats. The Democrats found however, that the remedy which was good for them in one case would be bad in the other, and after administering the dose to Multnomah, they concluded to stop the practice of [illegible] and let the other part[illegible] live.

The adoption of the report ended the proceedings of the Senate for to-day, an adjournment being had to ten A M to-morrow.

In the House, a temporary organization was effected at ten o clock, by electing Colonel W. W. Chapman Speaker pro tem, W. L. White, of Oregon City Chief Clerk, pro tem, E D Tuck, of Grant, Sergeant-at-Arms, pro tem, and M[illegible] Fred Waymire, of Polk, Thomas A Davis, of Multnomah and J L Louden, of J[illegible], a Committee on Credentials. The House then took a recess till 4 P M, when it reconvened and received the report of the Committee on Credentials and the members elect were sworn in by Sam E May Secretary of State. Without proceeding to a permanent organization, the House adjourned till to-morrow. The indications are that ex-Gov Whiteaker will be elected Speaker and W L. White, Chief Clerk. A M. Snyder, of P[illegible], has the inside track for Sergeant-at-Arms. Abbott of the Democrat is here looking out for an office and it is likely the House will give him one of its petty places. Stout will probably be the President of the Senate.

The Detroit Advertiser truly says that "the original carpet baggers were the Democratic patriots who, with a [illegible] roll of [illegible] under their arms ran away to Canada to [illegible] the draft." Some of the newly [illegible] Congressmen from Louisiana and other [illegible] are called carpet baggers by anti-[illegible], because they happened to be born in other States of the Union. By the same rule, Slidell, a New Yorker, Soule, a Frenchman, Benjamin, a West Indian, and most of the old Southern Congressmen were carpet baggers.

Some of the principal journals of the South have leading articles urging the Ku Klux chivalry to exercise as much care as possible that no great disturbances break out in any quarter through their acts as nothing would exert a more powerful influence upon the votes of the North than such riots. They want the [illegible] outbreak postponed until after the [illegible], but it is exceedingly difficult to [illegible] the enthusiastic zeal of the chivalry. See the dispatches from New Orleans.

John C Breckinridge is now [illegible] the only Constitutional Democrat" who has not [illegible] out for Seymour and Blair. It is supposed that he is soured because he did not get a place on the ticket. Certainly his eminent services to his party entitled him to the honor.

G L Bettinger Esq, a leading D[illegible] of Montana Boone County, Iowa, and C[illegible] of the Democratic Executive Committee, for the Eleventh Judicial District, has declared his intention to support Grant and Colfax.

The Montgomery (Ind) Journal says that Mr Calloway Noster, heretofore an influential Democrat in that county has renounced that disloyal party and declared his intention to support Grant and Colfax.

The Thunder from Maine.

To appreciate the force and significance of the Maine election it is only necessary to compare the result with that of former elections in that State, when the Republican party swept the country by their most triumphant majorities. At the election in September, 1864, (just prior to the last Presidential election), the Republican majority in Maine was 15,913. Lincoln obtained in the State, in 1864, 17,592 majority. Last year the Republican majority was 11,614. It is stated that the majority in the present election is above 20,000—a majority exceeding that achieved by the Republicans at any time during the war, and never exceeded except in 1866, when that enormity called "my policy" was rebuked by the whole nation. The Maine election is presageful of the general result in November. Grant and Colfax are irresistible. A gain of 10,000 in each of the States of Vermont and Maine, over the majorities of last year, shows the drift of the popular current. Can any man doubt that Grant and Colfax will be elected by an overwhelming popular vote?

A Very Fair Beginning.

We are nowise astonished at the proceedings of the Democrats in the Legislature; nor shall we be at any action they may take, even if they turn out all their political opponents from that body, remove the State officers, annul the last two amendments to the National Constitution and reaffirm and put into practice the "time-honored principles" of secession and rebellion. Who that remembers the former excesses of this party and bears in mind the violent, revolutionary policy to which it is pledged by the Wade Hampton platform, will be astonished at any outrage which the party may commit? Now, as of old, it will stop at nothing which it may deem necessary to compass its ends.

The Democratic members of the Senate never will undertake to give a reason for denying the Senators from Multnomah their rights in that body, because they have no reason to give which both the law and the fact would not instantly sweep away. Their determination is to have control of the Senate, and they do not trouble themselves about the regularity or lawfulness of the methods they employ. We stated the facts pertaining to this whole controversy in the OREGONIAN on Monday; and no one can gainsay them. Dribblesby of Grant and Stout of Multnomah have no business in the Senate. The former was contesting for the seat of Mr. Stearns, and on this he bases his claim to a seat, and takes it before the contest is decided; and he does this notwithstanding the fact that the people of Grant, knowing that Mr. Stearns had left the county and that a vacancy existed, elected another person, over Dribblesby himself, to fill the place. Stout goes into the Senate and votes to deprive both the accredited Senators from Multnomah of all their rights in that body, and votes furthermore that he himself is entitled to be the sole representative of this county there. And by the votes of Messrs Dribblesby and Stout, these pretensions are maintained in the Senate.

The Senate has no right to declare that Messrs Dolph and Powell shall alone cast lots to ascertain which shall keep a seat in that body. The Senators from Baker, Umatilla and Grant should also be included. It is certain that in any event either Dolph or Powell is entitled to a seat; by what right, then, are they both excluded and this county disfranchised? But we put the interrogation incorrectly, for of course there is no right in the case. There can be no vacancy anywhere until all cast lots and it is ascertained where the short term will fall. If it should fall to this county, (of which there is but one chance in four), then Mr. Stout might be received; but at present he is merely an impertinent interloper in the Senate, voting accredited members out and himself in.

Just let the play go on. This Legislature, had it been elected in 1862, would have put the State in an attitude of rebellion against the Government; need any one be surprised, then, if it does some very "Democratic" things before it adjourns? It has certainly made a favorable beginning.

No great while ago the telegraph entertained us with an account of an immense political meeting, torch-light procession, etc., of colored Democrats at New Orleans. We have now an account of a similar demonstration in that city by the colored Republicans. We are curious to see how the Democratic press will speak of this matter. It spoke with the greatest respect of the demonstration made by the black Democrats; what will it say of that made by the black Republicans? No doubt the occasion will be seized to repeat the usual effective arguments about the "long-heeled, kinky-haired nigger." It is worthy of remark that when the African Democrats were out in New Orleans they were not disturbed in the smallest degree, while it was all the military and police authorities could do on the occasion of the Republican demonstration to keep down the murderous Ku-Klux Democracy.

The Herald is betrayed by its ignorance into repeating an error of the telegraph, to the effect that the vote in Vermont is the "heaviest polled since 1864." The vote in that State in the Presidential election of 1860 was 44,644; and in the Presidential election of 1865 it was 55,740. The error made by the telegraph no doubt crept in in the transmission of the dispatch. It was clearly the intention to say that the vote was the heaviest polled since 1864. The Herald's argument that the Republican majority in Vermont has fallen off "in the heaviest vote ever polled in the State" is therefore manifestly fallacious. It is the largest majority ever gained except in a Presidential election.

The New Orleans Picayune is authority for stating that Jeff. Davis went to Europe mainly for his health, but partly induced thither by the invitation of an eminent commercial firm in England to become a partner in business. The Picayune understands that Jeff. does not intend to remain abroad after his health is restored, but will return and take up his residence in New Orleans, "where his Christian virtues are held in the most exalted respect." This remark about Jeff's "exalted Christian virtues" is evidently a plagiarism from the Oregon Herald.

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY.—The contents of the September number of this magazine are of a quality and variety to sustain the reputation of preceding numbers. Few efforts to make a useful magazine have been so well sustained by the publishers and so deserving of the favor of the public, as the Overland Monthly.

Says the San Francisco Chronicle of the 4th inst.: We have received a remarkably well written communication on the subject of our article in yesterday's Chronicle, entitled "African Suffrage," from W. H. Hall, a well known colored man of this city, in which the writer strenuously insists that the representations of the Southern correspondents of the New York papers, to the effect that the majority of the freedmen are going to vote the Democratic ticket, are altogether false. Mr. Hall says that he is in receipt of correspondence by every steamer from leading colored men in various portions of the South, assuring him that the freedmen, as a body, are fully awake to the importance of the political crisis, and that they will vote in November on the same side on which they fought during the rebellion. Our correspondent adds: "The Southern correspondents of the New York papers glean their information from those who are determined to starve or murder the loyal white and black men unless they do their bidding. Unhappily, this has been the case in some of the States where the power and resources of these States have been left in rebel hands, and where intimidation has been resorted to in order to compel the negroes to vote against their convictions."

The Republican journals of California continue their assurances that Grant and Colfax will get the electoral vote of that State. The Times says: The political information sent to the State Central Committee of the Union Republican party, from all parts of the State, is of the most encouraging character. Men of all nationalities are coming together in clubs, and enlisting under the banner of the Union savers—Grant and Colfax. Voters who never cast a ballot in their lives but for the Democratic ticket, are coming up by scores and enrolling themselves on the right side. The enthusiasm is all on the Republican side. Democratic meetings, as a general thing, are poorly attended and devoid of spirit, the Seymour men being discouraged by the prospect of defeat. The Republicans, however, come out jubilantly to their meetings. You can see victory in their movements. They mean to be triumphant, and as sure as November comes, so sure will Seymour and Blair be repudiated by the State of California. It is no longer a matter of doubt, but only a question of how great the majority for Grant and Colfax will be.

The San Francisco Times is authority for saying that at the election at Silver City, Idaho, Judge John H. Watson, formerly of Santa Cruz county, California, brought up eighteen negroes to the polls, sixteen of whom voted the Democratic ticket. After the ballots of the black Democrats had been deposited safely, the Judge mounted a stump and addressed his proteges, congratulating them upon having received the proud privilege of American citizens—the elective franchise. He told them they ought to feel grateful to the Democratic party for plunging the country into a war by which they had obtained their freedom and their citizenship. But for that party they would have been condemned to hopeless slavery, perhaps forever. He regretted, he said, that he had not been born in Africa himself, that he might experience the fullness of joy arising from the depths of degradation of a slave to the high exaltation of an American citizen!

That the Southern Ku Kluxers and Northern Copperheads object to negro suffrage simply because they fear they cannot get a majority of the negro vote, is clear enough. The New Orleans Times, a Democratic paper, cordially invites "colored clubs to take part with the Democracy in the campaign." It notifies them that "upon application to the State Central Committee, at the Democratic headquarters, their services will be cheerfully accepted, and positions assigned them in all political demonstrations made in behalf of the cause. We would also advise them to lose no time in organization. The campaign has already opened and will be prosecuted with unflagging energy." Here is "nigger equality" for Rev. Joseph Smith and the Oregon Democracy!

The New York Sun has discovered that half a dozen different Blairs are up for the Vice Presidency. Probably, having adopted the entire Blair family, the Democracy propose to be impartial to them all. At present there is flying from the mast heads of prominent Democratic newspapers, the names of Fancis P. Blair; Francis P. Blair, Junior; Frank P. Blair, Junior; Frank Preston Blair; Francis Preston Blair; General Blair, etc. The name of the father of all the Blairs is Francis P. Blair. It may be that it is understood he is a candidate as well as the whole family of boys.

THE New York Argus, a Democratic paper, says that the only effect, as to office-holders, of the election of Seymour, would be to give the country Seymour instead of Johnson, for the Senate will not confirm the nominations of the former, and hence all present incumbents will hold their offices. A very pleasant prospect, truly. Seymour instead of Johnson, and not another change in office anywhere. How much better will the people be off, then? And what inducement to work the thought must be to Democratic office hunters.

THE Democratic papers are publishing Secretary Stanton's letter to Seymour thanking the latter for having sent the State militia to Pennsylvania to repel Lee's invasion. They wish it to be taken as a complete refutation of the charges of disloyalty brought against their candidate. Unfortunately for that object the letter is dated several days before Seymour made his infamous Fourth of July speech in which he invited the New York mob to rise against the Government.

The Herald continues to say a good deal about "carpet-baggers." We wonder what business that carpet bagger, Beriah Brown, has here in Oregon? He came here with his carpet bag only a short time ago, and some of his political friends say he is now trying to set things up so that he can get a high office. Isn't an adventurer who has come carpet bagging all the way from beyond the Connecticut river to Oregon a fine fellow to be sneering at carpet baggers?

GEN. GRANT ON INCIPIENT REBELLION. In 1861, while U. S. Grant was returning from Covington, Ky., to Springfield, in obedience to a dispatch from Governor Yates, tendering him the command of the Twenty first regiment, he, with several newly appointed officers of Ohio and Indiana regiments dined, by invitation, with the late Hon. Daniel Mace, of Lafayette, Indiana, formerly a member of Congress from that district. Of course the condition of the country and the probabilities of the war, then just begun, were the chief subjects of conversation among these new soldiers of the Union. The danger of a negro insurrection being under discussion, an Ohio officer declared that, were he in line of battle about to engage the enemy, he would stop the fight long enough to join the Confederates in suppressing the insurrection and reducing the slaves to obedience. Grant, who sat by his side until then a quiet listener, turned to him and replied, "Col. W.—, I don't wish to interrupt you or hurt your feelings, but I must say that a man who can express such a sentiment as that is not far from being a traitor and an unsafe man to lead our soldiers." Col. W. was deeply exasperated under this telling rebuke, but Grant was firm, and it was only through the pacific interposition of Major Mace that a personal difficulty was averted. The foregoing incident was related by Major Mace to a company of friends in Lafayette in the winter of 1865 6, just after his appointment by Mr. Johnson to the office of Postmaster at that place, and we have it from an officer who heard him make the statement.—Quincy (Ill.) Whig August 19th.

Sunset Cox claimed in his last speech, that "the Democratic party was the one which had in it the principles of Jesus Christ—the law of kindness; was the party of magnanimity and forbearance. There was but one Christian sentiment in the country to-day, and that was to be found incarnate in the Democratic party." Brick Pomeroy, John Morrisey and Fort Pillow Forrest are members of this pious crowd!

The following is from the dispatches received from San Francisco yesterday:

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—General Rollington, at Sacramento, received the following telegram from J. G. Blaine: Augusta, Maine, Sept. 15. We have carried Maine by more than 20,000 majority, the largest vote ever thrown in the State. The Union State Central and County Committees have jointly determined to fire a salute of 200 guns this evening in honor of the Republican victory in Maine.

Frank Blair Drunk.

HOW THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE SPENT A SUNDAY IN IOWA—HE IS CARRIED DEAD DRUNK TO HIS ROOM.

(From the Des Moines Register, Aug. 21st.)

If Frank Blair is "the coming man," Parton need never have asked if he will drink wine. If Frank Blair were asked himself, he would no doubt be honest and say, "No thank you, I'll take whisky," and the answer would only show his faithful devotion to Democratic principles. The leaders of the party which has hoisted him as a candidate deny, however, that Frank indulges in anything, but asserts that he is as temperate as Neal Dow himself. Perhaps he is when at home; but when abroad, away from his mammy, he isn't, as we will show.

On Sunday, August 31, Frank Blair was at St Joseph, Mo., on his way to the mountains to attend to his duties as one of the Commissioners of the Pacific Railroad. No train running from St. Joseph to Council Bluffs, he hired some railroad laborers to take him through on a hand car. With a full supply of Frank's favorite beverage on board, they started out, but on reaching Hamburg, in Fremont county, of this State, they had become so "demoralized" they had to lay up for repairs. Arriving there in the afternoon, and stopping at a railroad eating house kept by Sevile, the distinguished genius of the new revolution had his presence announced to the faithful, who soon came flocking to pay due homage to their chief.

Well, it so transpired that they "homaged" too much, and by eight or nine o'clock the party were as drunk as even Democrats ever get, and the "head centre" was the boozist of them all. The noise of the convivialists attracted quite a crowd, and it is said that Blair gave them more antics, capers and ground and lofty tumbling than they had ever seen in a circus. So drunk did he finally become that he was picked up from the floor and carried bodily to bed by two men, and put away out of sight of the tittering crowd.

These statements are true and indisputable. We have the testimony of several reliable men who saw all we have related, and more too. Sevile, the proprietor of the hotel, expresses his willingness to make affidavit to the statement, and we defy any one to disprove the facts.

Eating off the Same Plate.

(From the Little Rock (Ark.) Republican, August 26.)

On the 15th of January last (not yet seven months ago), the Democratic party of Arkansas, through a State Convention representing nearly every county in the State, pledged itself to the following declaration of principles:

1st. A white man's government in a white man's country.

2d. The incapacity of the negro for self government.

3d. Exclusion of negroes from an equal participation in making the laws, and from the rights and privileges of social equality.

The foregoing is a fair representation of Democratic principles.

The following is a fair representation of Democratic practice:

COME ONE! COME ALL!! BOTH WHITE AND BLACK!!

As the infamous lie is in circulation that the meats for colored persons will be poisoned, we nail that Radical trick to the counter by offering choice of tables to our colored friends, or we will divide places with them.

H. N. HUTTON,
PAUL F. ANDERSON, } Com
J. B. BRANDON,

Helena, August 10th, 1868.

The foregoing is an exact copy of a handbill placarded through the streets of Helena and the cross roads of Phillips county, by the Democratic party of that county! They propose to "our colored friends" not only the choice of tables, at their white man's barbecue, but they go so far as to divide places with them! That is to say alternate seats, so as to have a negro between every two white men, and a white man between every two negroes, and each to eat promiscuously out of the other's plate!

We confess that, like the man who had his apple cart emptied at the top of a hill, we are unable to do justice to the case by any comments it is possible for us to make. We leave it, as Judge English does the "test oath," for every man to decide for himself, what ought to be said or thought of this new phase of Democratic consistency!

THE QUADRILLE.—A verdant youth thus explains the quadrille:

We both bowed to both of us, then together, then the fiddle tuned, and the thing started; grabbed her female hand, she squeezed mine, we both slung each other, but she slung the most because I think she loved me for a little while; then we changed base clear across the room, jumped up and over so many times, passed each other twice times, then my dear and me doesed a doe and hopped and skipped home again (from a foreign shore,) then we two forward four, one ladies changed, we X over, turning around twice shas chayed sideways. I backed to place, she ditteed; side couples to the right, to the left, side couples tother way, side couples turn ladies, ladies turn side couples, gentlemen turn side couples, all hands round, back again, first feller take opposite side "gal," sling her around, take your own "gal," and t'other "feller's gal," forward and back, twist both "gals" twine times, sling 'em to opposite "feller," let him do the same as you did, and back again to places, light gentlemen balance to heavy lady, duplicate, promenade all, "gals" get in the center, fellers get hold of each other's hands, bob up and down, arms over ladies' waterfalls, ladies stoop, jump up and down, each "feller" takes his "gal" back to place; right lady spin right gentleman, left gentleman spin left lady, all twist each other, do it over again, repeat once more, keep it up, all turn around, all turn the other, backwards, sideways, each couple spin t'other couple, cross over, back.

The National Union, published at Cincinnati, edited by Enos B. Reed, Esq., hitherto independent in politics, has hoisted the standard of Grant and Colfax. In the last issue Mr. Reed defines his position:

"We have endeavored since we resurrected the National Union to observe a strict impartiality in regard to political matters, but confess that we are unable to do so. We look upon the present campaign as only the war between the North and the South renewed. Rebel Generals assure us that the Lost Cause is triumphant in the ascendancy of the Democracy. We opposed the South during the war, and we can not affiliate with rebels now who declare they are only laboring for the triumph of the South over the North, and to undo all that a four years' terrible war accomplished. We can never affiliate with such men as Brick Pomeroy and Wade Hampton, representative types of Northern traitors and Southern rebels. We do not fight with Frank Blair in his proposed revolutionary project. Henceforth we battle with Grant and Colfax, but shall always speak our mind freely concerning all political parties. We are neither knife-bound nor party-bound, but shall ever be found advocating those men and measures which we believe the best tend to promote the interests of the entire country."

The best thing ever told of President Johnson is at the expense of Samuel J. Tilden of New York. Tilden was once spinning an apparently interminably long yarn to President Johnson, in the course of which he spoke of the oyster as pleasant to eat, though repulsive to look at. The President, who was perhaps a trifle bored, here interrupted, and quietly taking his spectacles from his nose, quaintly observed: "There was one thing to be said in favor of the oyster, and that was, it knew when to shut up."

The Montgomery (Orange county, N. Y.) Standard, hitherto neutral, runs up the Grant and Colfax flag.

New York City consumes 25,000,000 gallons of milk yearly.

There are over 1,200 Grant and Colfax clubs in Ohio

The Democratic rebellion cost the country $4,000,000,000. We still owe $2,500,000,000 of this sum. A Democratic party is a costly establishment in a country.

THE CHRONICLES.

And it came to pass in the third year of the reign of George the Third, who was ruler over the land of Webfoot, that the news went through at all the land that KOHN & FISHEL, at No. 91 Front street, Portland, were selling Dry Goods and Clothing at fabulously low prices, and all the people heard it and they straightway came unto that place; and when they had demanded the price at KOHN & FISHEL'S store they marveled and said: "The half has not been told us, for here we can buy all kinds of Clothing and Dry Goods for ourselves, our wives and our little ones much cheaper than at any other place in all the land of Webfoot." And from that day even until now the people have come in great numbers to buy their goods of KOHN & FISHEL.

Wear and Tear.—When the constitution is weak and the system depressed by the wear and tear of business life which makes such tremendous drafts upon the body and mind, unless some healthful and strengthening tonic is resorted to, prostration will ensue, and disease creep unawares upon the victim of negligence. But if which is a genial and purely vegetable stimulant, be timely administered, the organization will resist and baffle the vales of epidemic and changes of temperature incidental to this season of the year, which disorders the nerves of the feeble.

There is an active and permanent vitality in this remedy, which will prove of great benefit to the broken down and shattered constitution. It is the only tonic of which the stimulating principle is perfectly pure. Its basis is the essential principle of sound rye, which is admitted by analytical chemists to be the most harmless of stimulants and this fluid is refined from crudities which belong to it as it comes from the manufacturer. The other ingredients are composed of medicinal plants and herbs, and contain not one harmful element in all their composition.

[illegible] TOWN.—Notwithstanding the hazy, [illegible] day, yesterday, our streets presented quite a lively appearance. Many teams were in from the country and city dealers paid but little attention to the weather.—The repairs rendered necessary by the late breakage at Hayden's Mill, were made yesterday, and it will be [illegible] turn out the usual quantity of lumber this [illegible].—The Willamette river steamers will make the [illegible] connection at Canemah for Salem this morning. Every [illegible] leaving this city this morning will probably [illegible] during the [illegible]. The [illegible] John L. Stephens on her late trip up brought about 800 tons of freight, much of it for parties up the valley and in Eastern Oregon. The Portland Water Co's reservoir is fast being completed. Many persons were deterred from going to the Washington County Fair yesterday, by the state of the weather, which was any thing but pleasant. The first barley of this year's crop we have seen was brought down to the [illegible]. The grain is plump and heavy. [illegible] many [illegible] in this city yesterday it was necessary to use artificial light throughout the entire day. The iron foundry [illegible] becoming likely to become the leading feature [illegible] of Oregon enterprise. The are four iron foundries in this city and they are all kept busy, some of them running day and night.... A good substantial plank way to Couch [illegible] and the Peoples Transportation Co's [illegible], foot of B street, has been laid down. The [illegible] and rules of the Portland Homestead Association have been printed by A. G. Walling and can [illegible] by those who desire to become members of the [illegible]. The iron columns in the second story of the [illegible] at the corner of First and Stark streets [illegible] in their places. The old building on the levee [illegible] used by Mr. Thompson as a blacksmith shop has been torn down to make room for more substantial [illegible].—The Flouring mills of this city are not running, owing, we suppose, to the lack of grain. Our [illegible] market is mostly supplied by the mills on the river above here.... The stone foundation for Ankeny's new [illegible] is nearly laid. Vine street is to be improved by [illegible] laying side and crosswalks and a [illegible]. [illegible] a street is to be improved from [illegible] side of Second to the Nancy Lownsdale claim [illegible] from A to College, by grading and laying [illegible].—Another fine portable steam engine was finished and put in operation at the Oregon Iron Works [illegible].... The bark Zephyr left San Francisco for this port on Monday last. Fresh shoal water [illegible] can be obtained at the various refreshment [illegible] in the city.

[illegible].—We believe that when the resources of [illegible] have been fully developed, we shall witness such [illegible] in her prosperity as has never been experienced [illegible] of any other State in the Union. There [illegible] why this should be so. One of the [illegible] is the fact that Oregon is better adapted [illegible] than any other country in the [illegible] unsettled, owing to her healthy climate [illegible], fertile soil, and in fact all the elements [illegible] to sustain the greatest population on the [illegible]. Her crops are never known to fail. [illegible] in the temperate zone almost can [illegible] as little labor as any place in the world [illegible] of the best and most useful kinds. [illegible] Her gold, silver, iron and coal mines [illegible] of these minerals to enrich millions of [illegible]. The great want of this country is people. [illegible] is not coming this way as fast as it should [illegible] if the advantages which are found here were [illegible]. We believe the day is dawning when [illegible] take a fresh start in the march of improvement [illegible] in our city of several heavy capitalists [illegible] San Francisco and the East, at the present [illegible] interest in our State which we are [illegible]. Hon. Holladay, C. E. Tilton, P. C. Brinck [illegible] some of our distinguished citizens visited [illegible] Railroad and the iron works and [illegible] day, and the visiting gentlemen [illegible] highly satisfied with the prospects [illegible]. There is no point in the Union [illegible] investment of capital will be more [illegible] ultimate reward than Oregon [illegible] here and examine for themselves, [illegible] truth of these observations, and [illegible] greater attention to the chances [illegible] here for the profitable investment of [illegible] mention that two of the gentlemen [illegible] the resources of our State [illegible] & Welch of the National Iron Works [illegible] in this city by the over [illegible].

[illegible] We have seen it as cold as Greenland, as [illegible] have seen it rain and heard it blow, [illegible] seen just such a day as it was yester[illegible] morning the whole city and [illegible] in a very dense smoke. The sun [illegible] we couldn't see it. The wind was [illegible] and the whole atmosphere was filled [illegible] houses were compelled to use [illegible]. The [illegible] had some difficulty in say[illegible] so thick was the smoke. The smoke [illegible] and north east of the city on the [illegible] and the wind blowing from that di[illegible] of ashes and charred leaves [illegible] comfort impossible, out of doors [illegible] that the fire had reached a [illegible] of East Portland, and was still burn[illegible] and rapidity. Fears are enter[illegible] in the section of country be[illegible] and the Columbia river north, have [illegible] loss in fences and crops. We don't [illegible] rain in this country. Our prayers in [illegible] "too muchly" when the [illegible] but just now a copious shower would [illegible]. There are wells and cisterns to [illegible] rivers to be made navigable, there is [illegible] these conflagrations in the forests [illegible] so that altogether there is great [illegible] of the weather to dispatch us rain over [illegible] not that we would dictate, but merely [illegible].

[illegible] COURT.—But little of general public [illegible] has been transacted in this Court [illegible] week. On Monday a license was [illegible] Atkinson to sell liquor in East Port[illegible] of Monday was spent in auditing [illegible] against the county [illegible] the matter of the small pox patient [illegible] County Commissioner's Court, by the [illegible] of the city, some three weeks since, was [illegible] Marquam and Commissioner Boyd [illegible] to investigate the matter and allow any [illegible] not exceeding $100. So some of the [illegible] have found authority to act in this [illegible] It seems that all the man wants now [illegible].

FIRES.—The Rescue, from points along [illegible] the fire as raging to an alarming [illegible] Territory side. The mail car[illegible] to Olympia, was unable to reach the [illegible] of the heavy fires and dense [illegible] effort was probably made to reach [illegible]. The mail this way came down the [illegible] yesterday. It is reported that two [illegible] opposite St Helens. The fire was [illegible] water's edge, at Martin's Bluffs, [illegible] and limbs of trees were flying [illegible] and lighting up the whole country in [illegible].

[illegible].—The new theatrical troupe will [illegible] entertainment at the New Theatre, for [illegible], on to-morrow evening. The above [illegible] be rendered, and from the representa[illegible] have seen Mr Bates' troupe on the [illegible] a good performance. Let everybody [illegible] the manager in his efforts to [illegible] for the public which has long [illegible] almost with one horse shows and [illegible] Mr. Bates and his troupe de[illegible].

[illegible]—From parties who came up on the [illegible] we learn that the fire is raging at [illegible] on the river below here. In some places it [illegible] and was destroying the fences, and [illegible]. Two houses have already been [illegible] it is greatly feared that the loss will be [illegible] a rain should set in very soon and ex[illegible].

[illegible] Y[illegible] day John Donnelly made his [illegible] His Honor Recorder Hoffman to [illegible] of drunkenness and disorderly con[illegible] the little matter by paying a fine of [illegible]. Mrs. Delschneider charged that [illegible] her in an unbecoming manner [illegible] to see it in that light and ordered the [illegible].

[illegible] J. W. Johnson, Esq., of the [illegible] this office yesterday. He reports [illegible] on the Yamhill, and says he first en[illegible] smoke on the Chehalem mountains [illegible] this side of Lafayette.

[illegible] The steamer Ranger brought up some [illegible] yesterday from Lewis river. They [illegible] the Indians, and are said to be very [illegible].

[illegible] & Moses have opened an intelligence of[illegible] street, next to the Postoffice, where they [illegible] attend to everything in their line of busi[illegible] is a printer and has filled the chair of "ye [illegible] three city papers, at different times and [illegible] for the business he is now engaged in [illegible].

[illegible].—Prof. McCann organized his danc[illegible] night. The first class meets on Thursday, [illegible] and the third on Monday evening [illegible] Saturday evening there will be a general [illegible] persons not belonging to the classes will [illegible].

[illegible].—Messrs. Hurgren & Shindler advertise [illegible] of parlor, bed-room and general household [illegible].

[illegible].—The New York Herald [illegible] splits its ticket and sup[illegible]. That's riding the fence [illegible]. It says:

[illegible] Republican ticket the efficient quan[illegible] in its proper place—the figure is [illegible] the cipher, the man leads the nomen[illegible] after. In the Democratic ticket it [illegible] the other way. There the cipher comes [illegible] and the number stands behind it, so that the Democracy begin their campaigning with a [illegible] in inverse order and are likely to go [illegible] as if it were a sum in fractions—the more [illegible] you get on the paper the less is the represented value.

The Hartford says:—"Singular as it may appear, the Democracy will take their defeat in November with a cheese—He ra tio !"

POLITE JOURNALISTS.—The editor of the Peoria Democrat having read Brick Pomeroy out of the party, that individual replied by calling him an [illegible] will [illegible] chunk." In reply, the editor of the Democrat refers to Brick as a "Pandemoniac paste pot [illegible]."

Seymour says Pendleton's greenback scheme is a humbug, and Pendleton says Seymour is the greatest statesman in America.

LAST QUANTITIES OF [illegible].—Thousands of teeth that might last a life time are lost every year simply because the [illegible] either forget or do not appreciate the fact that the SOZODONT duly applied, renders the [illegible].

A few words of gratuitous advice.—It is frequently asked by persons suffering from one of the multitudinous ailments of [illegible] resulting from a cold, what do you consider the best and most certain remedy for my complaint? the answer is, without qualification get a bottle of CONEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP and use it according to directions and upon the word of a candid man you will get immediate relief.

Facts for the People.—Statistics show that within the last year more than ten thousand children in the United States have died of the terrible disease Diphtheria and [illegible] thousand of Putrid Sore Throat. We confidently believe that nineteen twentieths of these victims might have been saved by the timely use of DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming off as the genuine their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

The Southern Leaders of the Democracy

From the New York Sun (Independent)

The D[illegible] party is anew committing a fe[illegible] submitting to the dictation of [illegible]. After plunging the country [illegible] which will not be repaired [illegible] half a century and as an indirect consequence of their [illegible] dragging the Northern [illegible] of the party to the verge of ruin [illegible] might have supposed that on the failure of their treason they would have been content to take an humble place in the ranks of the organization and leave its management to those who were loyal to the Union and to the party while they were fighting to destroy both. But on the contrary as it was before the rebellion so now [illegible] the motto of these Southern Democrats is Rule or ruin and fortunate for the Democracy will it be if the [illegible] hereafter as in that it was their Rule and ruin

For sixty years previous to the rebellion the South controlled the Democracy. Under the administrations of the philosophic Jefferson the moderate Madison and the [illegible] Monroe the sway of the South was gentle and liberal and resulted in many acts of reform of a national character. But on the advent of Calhoun the Southern Democracy became [illegible] selfish and sectional and inculcated the heresy that the extension and perpetuity of negro slavery must be the leading idea of the Federal Government and in accordance with the motto of rule or ruin Mr Calhoun and his disciples adopted nullification as the appropriate remedy for the real or fancied wrongs inflicted upon the South by the national government. Fortunately Gen Jackson was in the Presidential chair at that juncture and he set his foot on the cockatrice and for the time stamped it into the earth

The snake was scotched not killed and after Jackson retired from the White House it reared its crest with more boldness and venom than before. For twenty five years this serpent was the evil genius of the Democratic party. It stung to death every Northern and Western Democrat who would not follow its tortuous trail toward slavery extension and the ultimate dissolution of the Union. It would consent to accept the homage and the services of supple politicians like Pierce and Buchanan but scouted the aspirations of Northern and Western Democratic statesmen like Benton Van Buren Cass and Douglas who though ready to defend the rights of the South and yield much to its caprices were unwilling to become mere hewers of wood and drawers of water for the Negro Propaganda. Though their great services had made their names the synonyms of Democracy, they were sacrificed to that fell spirit which, springing into existence under the specious guise of State Rights, finally assumed the form of civil war

Those apostles of the Calhoun creed having failed in their attempt to destroy the Union have again usurped control of the Democratic party and are framing its platforms selecting its candidates, dictating its measures and defiantly declaring that if they cannot have their own way in spite of the Constitution and the laws, they will commence another civil war. And that the picture may lack no revolting feature they seem as eager to exhibit their hypocrisy as their treachery by pretending that they are doing and proposing to do all this from a tender solicitude for the Union the Constitution and the laws toward which they not long ago manifested their attachment in so many striking ways and which they would fain rescue from the ruin that awaits them in the event of the election to the Presidency of so dangerous a man as Grant

The people of the North have no fears for the country. Having rode out the rebellion in safety it will survive the present turbulence of the South which is but the natural swell of the ocean after so terrible a tempest. But can the same be predicted of the Democratic party? With Hampton Toombs Cobb Semmes Vance Hill and their allies at the helm it will be a marvel if it is not as completely shipwrecked as was the old Federal party in the Presidential election immediately after the war with England when its candidate obtained only 34 of the 217 electoral votes and the fragments of that once powerful organization were allowed to slowly drift away into oblivion. If the Democracy would save themselves from the like fate, they must lighten the ship by throwing these secession buccaneers overboard

Notice of a Pacific Coast Magazine

The following notice of the Overland Monthly from the columns of the Nation is valuable because it is from one of the most critical and fastidiously conducted newspapers in the country

San Francisco and the Pacific coast generally and indeed, the whole Western country from Omaha to the Golden Gate, is to have a new magazine of its own. The Overland Monthly is the title of it. It is about the size of the Atlantic and not unlike that magazine in general appearance, inside and outside. It is rather better printed than the Atlantic though not so well as Lippincott's and altogether is very creditable to Messrs A Roman & Co, its publishers and Bacon & Co, its printers. Its cover bears the neat device of a grizzly bear standing in anger and obviously in imminent danger across the track of the Pacific Railroad. The motto "You Git," as they say to each other in California is all he lacks. In fact he "expresses that sentiment" very well as he stands. As for the contents they will be better by and by than now, in this time of the newcomer's infancy but the first number gives proof of ability in editors and contributors, and the magazine has a healthy look. California has for some reason produced an inordinate number of humorists. Humorists born abroad seem to find the air congenial, and to grow stronger there as if there feet were on native heath. It was so with Artemus Ward and with John Phœnix who can not be said to have been fully licensed as fun makers till they had gazed on Frisco. We turned then on opening the magazine to find some indication of this quality, and found an excellent specimen of it of a polished kind in the verses entitled "Returned" in the editor's table talk. Throughout the magazine, from the first article to the end, pleasant humorous touches are frequent, and of an agreeable freshness. The serious verses are all fully up to the level of the older magazines, and one piece, "San Francisco—From the Sea," is very neatly done, and has several pretty and even better than pretty, fancies. The prose is nearly all readable, and some of it valuable as for instance, the account of Portland on Wallamet the leading city of Oregon. In another article the Hawaiian population are described in a way that does not give one a very good impression of those mild islanders, who, it seems, hardly repay by their advance in goodness and greatness the toils of the missionaries who labor amongst them. Besides these articles we have one on "Art Beginnings on the Pacific," a strange story of "The Diamond Maker of Sacramento," a specimen of a Chinese novel, and half a dozen others—none sentimental, but all looking like an attempt to make an honest magazine of a high class

The friends of Horatio Seymour are vainly claiming for him a war record. He forwarded militia to meet Lee in his great invasion of the North. As Governor of the State of New York he could not do otherwise without openly joining the rebellion. From this he shrank for want of nerve, thus being untrue to himself. On January 31 1861 when six States had seceded, and others were preparing to follow he pronounced against coercion in a public speech at Albany, in the subjoined words

We are advised by the Conservative States of Virginia and Kentucky that if force is to be used it must be exerted against the united South. It would be an act of folly and madness in entering upon this contest to underrate our opponents and thus subject ourselves to the disgrace of defeat in an inglorious warfare. Let us also see if successful coercion by the North is less revolutionary than successful secession by the South. Shall we prevent revolution by being foremost in overthrowing the principles of our government and all that makes it valuable to our people and distinguishes it among the nations of the earth

An old woman Mrs Johnson was brought before Mr Benson a police magistrate in London a hundred times once charged with getting drunk. She is described as plump stout and nimble. The following dialogue took place

Magistrate—You are 90 years old Mrs Johnson?

Prisoner—Yes sir I am and one more

Magistrate—It is time you left off getting drunk Mrs Johnson

Prisoner—I will leave it off. I am going into Kent, hopping

Magistrate—Hopping at 90 years of age!

Prisoner—Yes sir! Every year I go into the grounds of Kent hop picking. I have done so 80 years

Magistrate—You are a wonderful woman Mrs Johnson. You are discharged
